Did you see that?

Yerba Buena is more eye-catching and enjoyable than ever. Here's a snapshot of what we accomplished together in 2016 and a preview of 2017.

2016 WOW!

Installation of artist Barry McGee's large scale mural on the Moscone Garage as part of Sites Unseen and our Yerba Buena Public Art Plan.

The new YBCBD Social Service Specialist connected people living on district streets to services as part of a one-year pilot program.

Two new Clean Team members and two more Community Guides provided an additional 184 hours a week of services.

More than 6,100 graffiti tags removed, 5,100 sidewalk sweep requests completed, 850 instances of aggressive panhandling addressed by the SFPD officer dedicated to our district, and tens of thousands of visitors directed to local businesses by our Community Guides.

2017 WHEE!

Installation of six high-visibility graphic-art crosswalks by art and design studio Future Cities Lab.

Debut of the second Sites Unseen public art installation by artist Hank Willis Thomas at Annie and Jessie streets.

Launch of a digital walking tour of Yerba Buena to promote the neighborhood.

Implementation and development of new neighborhood pedestrian safety improvements.

Yerba Buena Night, a free evening of music, dance, performance and food, is October 14.

Continued support of public art, community engagement, streetscape improvements, and public safety enhancements by the Community Benefit Fund.
