San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 2, 2015 — The Yerba Buena Community Benefit District (YBCBD) today unveiled its boldest line-up yet for the 5th annual Yerba Buena Night, an extraordinary free outdoor festival of music, art, dance and performances with more than 30 acts in downtown San Francisco on Saturday, October 10 from 6 p.m.-10 p.m.

Yerba Buena Lane, Jessie Square and Yerba Buena Center for the Arts will come alive with an array of innovative and exciting Bay Area performers like Duniya Dance, Pacific Edge Voices, Culture Shock, Roem Baur, Lily Cai Dance, Rin Tin Tiger, Bad Unkl Sista, aerialists La Maison Aurora, to name a few acts. Details for Yerba Buena Night are at www.ybnight.org.

“It’s the only night like it in the City with four hours of continuous performances of music, dance, video projections, acrobatics and other surprises,” said YBCBD’s Executive Director Cathy Maupin. “The outdoor venues — our neighborhood’s museums, parks and plazas — serve as an incredible backdrop for a great evening under the stars.” Maupin said that 10,000 people of all ages attended last year.

Yerba Buena Night is presented by the YBCBD, a community-based nonprofit organization working to improve the quality of life in the neighborhood. The event sponsors and partners include Boston Properties, MJM Management Group, San Francisco Travel, Yerba Buena Center of the Arts and Yerba Buena Gardens Festival.

It is easy to get to Yerba Buena. Take BART or MUNI to the Powell Street Station. SamTrans or Caltrain are nearby too. View a map of Jessie Square. City Park and the Hearst Corporation are offering a special discount at the Hearst Parking Center at 45 Third Street.
