New Dining Experiences Open Across the Yerba Buena Neighborhood

San Francisco, Calif. — Taste buds rejoice! A wide variety of new palate-pleasing experiences have opened in Yerba Buena.

Luke's Lobster dropped anchor at 92 Second Street and is offering amazing Maine lobster rolls. "We don't want you to have to go to a white tablecloth restaurant to enjoy a great seafood meal," said Luke's Lobster Partner Ben Conniff in Eater.

Executive Order Bar & Lounge, an American history-themed café and bar complete with Victorian armchairs, tufted leather wall panels, an antique pool table and lots of presidential portraits, is scheduled to open this winter at 868 Mission at Westfield San Francisco Centre. According to Eater, the food menu is by consulting chef Erik Hopfinger, who appeared on Top Chef in 2008. Tucked away at 163 Jessie Street and Annie Street is The Cordial, which has the SF Chronicle raving about its unique spritz cocktails.

If you love pizza, Yerba Buena is the place to be. Crowds are feasting on Roman-style pizza at newish Delarosa on Yerba Buena Lane. A new Pizzeria Delfina, inspired by the best pizza of New York City and Naples, Italy, is open at 688 Mission Street near Third Street and steps from SFMOMA. Pizzeria Delfina is the offspring of Delfina, noted as one of the "30 most important Bay Area restaurants of the last 30 years" by SF Chronicle restaurant critic Michael Bauer. Also new to Yerba Buena Lane is Oink & Oscar, a sandwich shop that, you guessed it, will have delicious meat products.

And, if that's not enough to perk you up, Oakland based Blue Bottle Coffee, known for its artisanal pour-overs, is poised to debut in the months ahead at 168 Second Street between Natoma and Howard streets.

Whatever you hungry for, It's all here in Yerba Buena.

About the YBCBD

The Yerba Buena Community Benefit District is a community-based nonprofit organization working to improve the quality of life in the Yerba Buena neighborhood, encompassing Second to Fifth and Market to Harrison streets. Yerba Buena is a dynamic district that features world-class museums, convention space, hotels, educational institutions, and more than 400 shopping, dining and entertainment venues. The YBCBD began implementing programs in 2009, such as a Community Guides program, SFPD bike patrol officer program, graffiti removal, street and sidewalk cleaning, neighborhood marketing, public art projects and other improvement efforts.
