PROVIDING RELIEF TO SMALL BUSINESSES & NONPROFITS IN YERBA BUENA

We believe that small businesses and nonprofits are the heart, soul, and conscience of our City. The YCBCD has provided more than $200,000 in grants to 26 nonprofits and small businesses to defray costs resulting from the pandemic since May, such as Carlos' Shoe Repair, Moscone Cleaners, Kaisen Sushi and many others. Here's what some grant recipients had to say:

"We were able to purchase some outdoor dining equipment essential to help our business to survive."

— MAX KWONG, OWNER, PINK ELEPHANT ALIBI

"With no break on my bills and utility payments due, the help is greatly appreciated."

— VALEN WEST, OWNER, THE FLYTRAP RESTAURANT

"Every little bit helps tremendously. We remain hopeful and continue to produce incredible craft beer."

—TIM MULLINS. GENERAL MANAGER, THIRSTY BEAR

Spring means renewal which has a deeper significance this year. The YCBCD will continue to provide additional material and financial support for small businesses, nonprofits, and cultural organizations so that Yerba Buena will bloom again.
